

Management of Hypertension CPD courses 2016

Primary Care Clinical Sciences, University of Birmingham

These CPD courses are suitable for GP's, practice nurses and other health care professionals aiming to acquire specialised skills and qualifications in hypertension management

Any of these courses can be attended as either a one day workshop or collectively as an MSc module

See overleaf for further details...

Faculty to include

Mrs Louise Beesley

Hypertension Nurse Specialist

Professor Gareth Beevers

Professor of Medicine

Professor Una Martin

Clinical Pharmacologist & Consultant Physician

....and other external specialists in the field

Registration

£75 per day

For more information or to register for any of our Hypertension CPD courses please contact

Amy Partleton

Tel: 0121 414 2677

Email: a.partleton@bham.ac.uk

Management of Hypertension CPD courses 2016

Primary Care Clinical Sciences, University of Birmingham

Monday 8th February

Update on management of hypertension

To include:-

- Measurement of blood pressure
- Investigations in primary care: when to refer
- Update on evidence based treatment options
- NICE hypertension guidelines
- Lipid management
- Adverse drug reactions
- Case studies

Tuesday 9th February

Management of special groups within primary care

To include:-

- History of hypertension
- Ethnicity, the young and the elderly with hypertension
- Hypertension and pregnancy
- Hypertension and renal disease
- Hypertension and the menopause
- Resistant hypertension
- Cardiovascular disease - risk assessment

Wednesday 10th February

Practical management of hypertension

To include:-

- End organ damage of hypertension
- BP measurement workshop
- Patient education and lifestyle advice
- Protocol development, audit and referral pathways
- Behaviour change and motivational interviewing
- BP management: the future